CKEditor: The Rich-Text Editor in Sakai

Part 3 of 4: Images
CKEditor Tutorial - Part 3

Working with Images
Basic Elements of Rich-Text

- Text
  - Paragraphs
  - Headings
  - Lists
    - Numbered
    - Bulleted
- Images
- Hyperlinks
Basic Elements of Rich-Text

- Text
  - Paragraphs
  - Headings
  - Lists
    - Numbered
    - Bulleted
- Images
- Hyperlinks
Welcome! This course is an introduction to the origins, core convictions, practices, and ethical commitments of the Christian reform movement which takes its name from the 16th century university professor, priest, and reformer, Martin Luther. In this course, you will explore the Lutheran understanding of the “founder” of Christianity (i.e., Jesus of Nazareth), the community which claims his name (i.e., the Christian community or church), the central text (the Bible), central rituals, and the ethical commitments which flow from all those elements just mentioned.

Please proceed to the course syllabus to begin. If you have questions, feel free to email me.
Embed a representative image for the course.
Example Sakai Site Home Page

Position text cursor for where to place the image.
Example Sakai Site Home Page

Enter Alternative Text for screen readers. E.g., “Painting of a young Martin Luther”.

Religion 224: Lutheran Heritage

Welcome! This course is an introduction to the origins, core convictions, practices, and ethical commitments of the Christian reform movement which takes its name from the 16th century university professor, priest, and reformer, Martin Luther. In this course, you will explore the Lutheran understanding of the “founder” of Christianity (i.e., Jesus of Nazareth), the community which claims his name (i.e., the Christian community or church), the central text (the Bible), central rituals, and the ethical commitments which flow from all those elements just mentioned.

Please proceed to the course syllabus to begin. If you have questions, feel free to email me.

[Image of Martin Luther]
Example Sakai Site Home Page

Resize the image in units of pixels. E.g., set Width to 200.
Example Sakai Site Home Page

Set the image Alignment to the Right for text to flow to the left.
Example Sakai Site Home Page

Add HSpace & VSpace to separate the image from text.
Religion 224: Lutheran Heritage

Welcome! This course is an introduction to the origins, core convictions, practices, and ethical commitments of the Christian reform movement which takes its name from the 16th century university professor, priest, and reformer, Martin Luther. In this course, you will explore the Lutheran understanding of the “founder” of Christianity (i.e., Jesus of Nazareth), the community which claims his name (i.e., the Christian community or church), the central text (the Bible), central rituals, and the ethical commitments which flow from all those elements just mentioned.

Please proceed to the course syllabus to begin. If you have questions, feel free to email me.
Basic Elements of Rich-Text

- Text
  - Paragraphs
  - Headings
  - Lists
    - Numbered
    - Bulleted

- Images

- Hyperlinks

Part 4